A big Thank You to all participants in our annual
OVASA Specialty for 2012

Thank You to Marlene Cockburn for providing results of the Specialty!

And a few of those behind the scenes who put it together and kept it together from beginning, nearly a year ago, to the end of this year's show!

Debbie

Setup, food, whatever needed to be done by not one club but two - as they say, want something done well and fast? Give it to a busy person and Debbie is always your best choice!

Tina

Over decades she's done just about every job required for the Specialty to be a success. This year it was no exception as Tina garnered donations for the prizes and cut the official Specialty Cake!.

Wendy

A Thank You to old guard Wendy Watson for great prizes in the draw! A major attraction in the draw was the 3-setter Sue Howe print, specially decoratively framed by artist Sue Howe! A beautiful dog bed and the coveted setter beer mug were also among the prizes

Francois

The 'invisible' hand behind the action in every show ring isn't the judge! Its the stewart! And Francois Bernier keeps everyone happy and the show moving.

Joan

Supervising in the background was OVASA Prez Joan Colbourn

Kim

New guard! Kim lives near Carp and kindly judged our Sweeps this year, but has participated before. This year, she is also a new member of OVASA! Welcome Kim Aston!

Pat and Vicky

Old guards who have held nearly every Specialty job at least once over the last few decades ensuring the success and survival of what has become a respected and popular legacy in the dog show world.

Making Life with Dogs and Dog's Lives Better!

A new puppy can bring about the same fears, concerns, questions and stress as a new baby – especially in a first time family! Unfortunately, the human baby may be kept but too often a new puppy is not. Unable to deal with the issues of a canine baby, they often end up going from owner to owner, and back to the local shelter and many never get a home, they get a needle instead. A little bit of timely advice, some training tips, information on what is normal, what is not, and what to do about either might save many a new human/canine relationship and the life of many puppies.

Rachelle Buckle is the Owner of Windy Willows Pet Services.

Rachelle's with dogs goes back to her own early years when it was her family who could not cope with the needs of a new puppy and gave it up.

So Rachelle has developed The Happy Puppy Training Kit to to help overcome the stress of that new relationship and prevent the potential heartbreak of failure.

All of this is not contained in a book! When you need an answer, you need it NOW, you don't have time to dig thru an index in a thick book. So Rachel's system is coded sheets with both written and pictorial instructions. Simple enough for a child, or an adult in a hurry who is losing patience with a puppy.

The Kit contains 20 different exercise sheets which:

- explain the importance of each exercise;
- provide quick instructions on how to do the exercise,
- Tips & Bits to help when things go wrong; and
- The Next Level for when things are going great!

"Unlike other rain coats on the market, Muddy Mutts dog apparel keeps your dog clean where they get the most wet and dirt... their legs and stomach. They offer waterproof protection where it's needed most."

Yes, it does look a bit weird, but the practicality hits every dog walker immediately! Dirt, sticks, burrs of all kinds, and the worst – ticks, some carrying dreaded Lyme disease, all target the underside and legs of our dogs. This underbelly rain coat saves long hours of combing out crap from long fur after a walk, allows a dog to run free in fields and paths where ticks are all too prevalent these days. So owner is happy, and so are dogs!

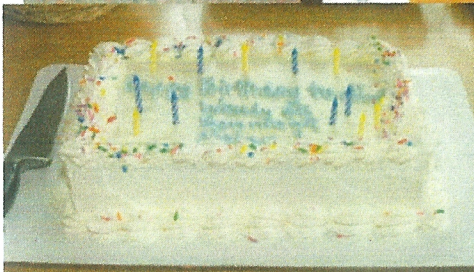

A neat new product worth considering for dogs who regularly walk or work in long grass, open fields and wooded areas.

Dog Fun Day 2012

The annual Fun Day nearly got rained out but persistent members drove to Debbie Cook's place in blinding pouring rain, and that persistence paid off - it seemed to rain everywhere but at Debbie's. The dogs had read the spring edition of this newsletter and knew this was THEIR party and they were playing hard! Chase, Tag, Identify that Smell, even one human assisted game- Bobbying for Hot Dogs, as well as a lot of flirting and socializing and long cool drinks. Happy wagging tails dominated the party as usual. Human companionship was pretty great too!

And the winner in the Hot Dog Bobbing game was Gordie girl Holly. Breaking a tie with English girl Lorelei, Holly pulled out two hot dogs from the bottom of the bucket in less than 9 seconds. Both girls look forward to a rematch next year and will take on all challengers!

The Red White Black and Tan News

Braggs, Farewells, News, Announcements

Here Comes Holly!!!!

Sue Howe's girl, Amberlove With My Usual Flair Gordon Setter took Best in Sweepstakes at OVASA's annual Specialty under judge Kim Alston.

'Holly' then followed that win with Best of Winners in the Gordon category.

And her beauty and playfull attitude had the boys' heads spinning at the OVASA fun day!

Certainly a girl with a future!

From Joan Colbourn's breeding, Fallowfield Kaerus Of Anerley, owned by Nancy Higgitt, President of the Irish Setter Club of Canada, lives in Winnipeg. His call name is Callum. He is the son of Joan's 'K.C.'. Callum took a Group 4th picking up 23 points May 26, at the Fort Garry Kennel Club this past May 26.

Ferguson Forest trails walk in Kemptville

October 27th at 10:30 am.

The dog walk is a go as long as the weather is not raining out there.

The Ferguson Forest entrance where we will be meeting is on County Road 44. We can park all the cars there and it is just a short walk on a wide open trail. Those that let their setters run free can almost immediately take off their leashes and watch them go.

I have asked Kathleen Collins to join us as our guide. She can take us through many of the trails safely either choosing the easier terrain or we could get a real hack through the forest under and over hills and trees. She has taken me through some really good trails. Great photo ops for you and your dog.

Entries didn't exactly pour in for the photo contest, announced in the last newsletter, but quality is a higher priority than quantity and we got quality! It has been apparent that the advent of digital photography has made a major difference in the artistic quality of photos today over the old days of film.

Digital catches action like only a professional with an expensive camera, fast speed film and skill could have caught on film. And on top of that, software can bring that long distance shot up close, bring detail out of the shadows and reveal a shot that no human alone with any camera could have taken.

But always, the subject, the responsive finger which clicks at just the right moment, the eye that sees the right moment, along with some luck, determines the potential of the final product. And we have the right subject! And I have the right photo software.

So keep that digital camera, cell phone, Touch, iPad, whatever portable devices you own, handy and shoot! And shoot a lot! Email to lesley.cluff@xplornet.ca. Put that in your contact list. Send your best and not so good.

A few minutes on my computer and I can turn them into great shots. Entries to OVASA's 2013 Photo Contest now being accepted!

The winning 2012 photo will be announced at the 2012 Christmas Party! A panel of judges has been selected. All own at least one dog, none of which are setters so no bias.

"Ok, Mom. I am ready. Let's go"

This photo won CBC Ottawa contest for tickets to "Beauty and the Beast"

It was also a winner on Thursda evening Ian Black's weather.

Sheila Davidson

Sheer Joy!

"Last summer I took Holly for a walk up near Clayton and we found a little stream that spread out below a lovely little waterfall. Holly jumped at the chance literally, to enjoy the cool water! She was only 4 months old at the time. I love these pictures! Holly is my Gordon, Amberlove With My Usual Flair. "
